Office Memorandum • UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI

FROM : SAC, NEW YORK (100-0-95340)

SUBJECT : GRAHAM GREENE
IS-GREAT BRITAIN

DATE 11/7/57

INS, NYC by letter dated 10/24/57, furnished copy of their Central Office teletype dated 10/23/57, containing the following information:

GRAHAM GREENE, INS file #A-11286219, born 2/10/04, Berhamsted, England, was granted a waiver to enter the U.S. pursuant to Section 212(A)(28). This waiver authorizes three entries in connection with a single trip to North America during 1957. Inspecting officer at Idlewild Airport will ascertain the port of entry through which subject will reenter from Cuba and possibly from Canada when returning to England. Appropriate ports of entry will be notified by teletype of the provisions of this waiver. INS instructed that GRAHAM GREENE is to be informed that this information is desired for his convenience in order that ports of entry may be notified of the provisions of the waiver.

Files of the NYO reflect that in December 1956 a waiver was granted GRAHAM GREENE for entry into the U.S. for a period of six months. The ground of his inadmissibility was given as membership in the Communist Party of Great Britain.

The files also reflect that in the case entitled, "DONALD DUART MAC LEAN, GUY FRANCIS DE MONAY BURGESS, ESPIONAGE-R", one CHRISTOPHER FISHERWOOD was interviewed regarding subject BURGESS in June and July 1951, and stated that his cousin, GRAHAM GREENE, the well-known Catholic British writer, had attempted to get him to take an independent trip to Spain rather than go together with a leftist writers' group.

No further information identifiable with GRAHAM GREENE appears in the files of the NYO, and no further action is contemplated, UACB.

HEADLINE: Section 212(a)(28) of the Immigration and Nationality Act

APPLICATION: Admission as nonimmigrant

REASON: The applicant is a citizen and resident of England, born at Perhamstead on February 10, 1904. He seeks to enter the United States to consult with his literary agents and publishers, to re-enter from the enroute to Canada, and possibly to again re-enter enroute from Canada to England.

The ground of inadmissibility cited above arose from membership for a period of approximately four weeks in the Communist Party of Great Britain (CPGB) during 1923 while a student at Oxford University.

The applicant was on December 14, 1956 granted a waiver of inadmissibility and there is no evidence that the privilege was abused. The Department of State has made a check of the records of the National Security Agencies and these have disclosed no pertinent derogatory information. The Department concurs in the recommendation of the Embassy at London that the ground of inadmissibility be waived for multiple entries.

We have considered the material available and the recommendations of the Department of State. The following order will be entered:

It is ordered that Graham Greene be admitted to the United States on three occasions in connection with a single trip to North America during 1957 pursuant to the authority contained in Section 212(d)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, if otherwise admissible than under Section 212(a)(28) of that Act, subject to revocation at any time and conditions upon the Department of State furnishing this office the means of transportation and point of entry through which the applicant will seek re-admission, or the enroute from Canada.

Song for Lost Lovers

The dream remains, and this we shall remember
When all the bitterness of yesterday
Is gone; the singing silence of September
Will resurrect the glory that was May.
We shall not soon forget the wild insistence
That surged within our hearts not long ago,
And through the purple haze of time and distance
The voice of love will whisper soft and low.

Your eyes, perhaps, will glance in new directions
And seek another realm of ecstasy,
Yet, even if you transfer your affections,
Some moment in the day you'll think of me...

And I shall make of all the bitter-sweet
A song for boys to whistle in the street

—Mitchell Parish

The B'way-H'wood Show Jayne Mansfield, who is more of a celebrity in Hollywood than in New York... Jane Wyman, incognito (plus Movietown sunspecs), introducing herself in a Beverly Hills corridor... Esther Williams, who everybody wishes they could marry like—envying the Seville's mambo experts from her ringside chair... "I just can't get the beat," she pouted with the tip of her index finger between her teeth. Phyllis Kirk (of "Playhouse 90") winging back to Manhattan for the Yule days... The Jose Ferrers (Rosemary Clooney) at the Nat (King) Coles' home for supper... Debra Paget rehearsing her sensuous rhythms (for our Friday-nighter) with only her torrid bongo drums for the "music"... The Joshua Logan family at eventide in their Beverly Hills Hotel bungalow. A happy scene to a New Yorker passerby; seeing the top-flight director (and his wife) playing with their Indian-costumed children among the Christmas decor

Sallies in Our Alley: Overheard at the "Anastasia" preview: "What kind of night was it?"... "Typical Hollywood event. We all went to be seen"... Sammy Kaye convulsed us with the one about the teacher asking a Teen-Urger a problem in arithmetic "If you have five balloons and take away 3, what is left?"... The Retort Wonderful: "Marilyn Monroe"

Hollywood Vignette: Lovely Norma Shearer was responsible for casting New Yorker Bob Evans as her late husband (Irving Thalberg) in the forthcoming film about his life. Thalberg was a giant among the movie midgets... Evans has played only a minor role on the screen... Norma was sunning at the Beverly Hills Hotel pool when she spotted young Bob... "Who is that pleasant young man?" she inquired. "He reminds me of Irving at that age"... They met... Five minutes later she signed him.

Memos of a Midnighter. The Ray Millands have intimates concerned... Eddie Fisher's new picture, "Bundle of Joy," premieres tonight at the Capitol. Proceeds to Hungarian relief... Helen Hayes says the correct pronunciation of her latest film chick (with Yul and Ingrid) is "Ah-nah-stah-see-jayah." 20th Century Fox chief Buddy Adler says "Mebbeso, but we call it: 'Anna-stay-zee-er.' Easier for the public"... The City of Hope crowd honoring its "father" Samuel H. Golter on his 30th ann'y were pleasantly surprised when the Runyon Fund treasurer presented him with $10,000 for his "baby" from Mr. and Mrs. United States... Hollywood newspaper people are not happy about America's most decorated soldier (Audie Murphy) taking the lead role in the film version of "The Quiet American," which libels Americans. The author of the book admits being an ex-Commy... An overnight-success strolled into Chasen's surrounded by buddies and pals... A show biz veteran wondered "where all his new friends came from"... "I wonder," hmf'd a columnist, "whom they've just run out on"

Show Business Novelette: Six acts and a twelve piece orchestra were hired by the Furr Super Markets of Lubbock, Texas for a 5-day show...The entertainers flew from Hollywood—to learn the engagement was off. Because the owner heard a tv emcee say that all Christmas shows should be cancelled and the money donated to Hungarian relief...One of the victims wrote a note to the television chap who made the costly suggestion: "I have four children and three cars in my family. So I have put this sign on my old cars: 'Don't buy (so and so's) cars. Send the money to the Actors' Relief Fund.'"

Broadway Chop-Chop: Girls are like this: Thrush Karen Chandler bought two brass beds at a roadside auction for $7. Then she spent $1,100 for frills and doodads to go with them. "Singing the Blues" (Guy Mitchell's disc) passed the gold record mark (a million copies), his first big chick platter in 8 years. Disc spinner Wm B Wms' advice to dept. store Santas: "When in doubt on how to answer kids' questions just say, 'Ho, Ho, Ho'". The networks are recommended to the dazzler named Mitze Huls, whose teevee program for tots is the No 1 program in Vegas. Not only for children but for their fadders, who enjoy her...Galena, the Cotillion Room canary, was once in a Nazi labor camp. Now she has a wardrobe for her attractive act costing $15,000.. The Jan. 4th Collier's cover (on the stands this week) has the most beautiful likeness of Grace Kelly...Her only competition is on the top of the Letters col'm of Collier's page 10 (A Doll!)

Orchids: Herb Sheldon's "Studio Party" (via Dumont), his 8th teevee show on the air now. Les Paul and Mary Ford's new song, "Cinco Robles".. Tyree Glenn's quartooters at the Embers. 20th Century's switch ending to "Anastasia" played to the hilt by Helen Hayes, Yul Brynner and lovely Ingrid Bergman.

Sounds-in-the-Night: At the Boulevard: "Have a Christmas toast: Be nice to people. There are only a few of us left". At Romanoff's: "Christmas reminds you that there's nothing wrong with people. Just with a few of them". At Lindy's: "Broadway's where copy-cats think the only way to climb the ladder of success is to get a piggy-back ride". At El Morocco: "Some of my best friends are Ingrates"...At Reuben's: "Teevee sponsors are like Broadway pals. Neither last very long". At the Little Club: "The Commies can never win the respect that Hungary's patriots can never lose"...At Arthur Murray's "Having children doesn't make one a mother any more than owning a violin makes one a violinist". At Mocambo: "The Torch is when you remember everything. Except how to laugh".

From Girl Friday: "Big talk along Madison Avenue that an airlines tycoon and his ad agency talking over costs of 15 minute TV-radio newscast. This would be peachy...Sponsor wants only cities in which airline flies—about 60. Does not want Variety show...Let you know definitely, he says, by Christmas."

In re: GRAHAM GREENE

FOR CONSIDERATION UNDER SECTION 212(d)(3)
OF THE IMMIGRATION AND NATIONALITY ACT

IN BEHALF OF APPLICANT: No one

INADMISSIBLE: Section 212(a)(28) of the Immigration and Nationality Act

APPLICATION: Admission as nonimmigrant

DISCUSSION: The applicant is a citizen and resident of England, born February 10, 1904 at Barnstaple, England. He desires to enter the United States for a period of six months in connection with a play written by him which is to be produced in New York City.

The ground of inadmissibility cited above arose from membership in the Communist Party of Great Britain (CPGB). The Department of State informs us that this membership was in the nature of a joke while the applicant was an undergraduate at Oxford University. Membership continued for a period of approximately four weeks during which time he contributed two shillings to the CPGB.

The Department of State has telephonically requested that the ground of inadmissibility be waived in behalf of the applicant in the public interest. This recommendation is based on the applicant's prominence. He is internationally known as a writer and from the philosophies expressed in his writings it is evident that he is anti-Communist. The Department of State is of the opinion that to refuse a visa to this applicant would result in widespread publicity adverse to the interest of the United States.

The Department of State informs us that it is believed the applicant may apply for a visa today. For this reason, a current check of the records of the national security agencies has not been made and the request for this waiver has been communicated telephonically. The customary security checks will be made by the Department of State and transmitted to this Service immediately upon becoming available. In view of the circumstances surrounding this application, the waiver will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED that Graham Greene be admitted to the United States for a period of approximately six months pursuant to the authority contained in Section 212(d)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act if otherwise admissible than under Section 212(a)(28) of that Act (former membership in the Communist Party of Great Britain), subject to revocation at any time in the discretion of the Attorney General and conditioned upon application for admission being made within 90 days.

Graham Greene On Way With Visa Exception

By the Associated Press

SAIGON, Indo-China, Feb 9.—
 British Novelist Graham Greene
 left by air today for Hong Kong en route to the United States for a short visit.

To grant him a visa the State Department made a rare exception to a law barring all former Reds from the United States.

Mr. Greene, a Catholic convert,
 had said he once was a member of the Communist Party, but only for a brief time as a youthful prank while he was a university student.

(GREENE)

THE AMERICAN CONSUL AT SAIGON, INDO-CHINA, IS BEING AUTHORIZED TO GRANT A VISA PERMITTING THAT GRAHAM GREENE, BRITISH AUTHOR, TO ENTER THE UNITED STATES, STATE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCED.

DEPARTMENT PRESS OFFICER MCDERMOTT SAID THE ACTION WAS AUTHORIZED BY THE ATTORNEY GENERAL UNDER A PROVISION IN THE 1918 IMMIGRATION ACT WHICH PERMITS HIM TO MAKE EXCEPTIONS TO THE ACT.

GREENE'S APPLICATION HAD BEEN HELD UP FOR TWO WEEKS BECAUSE HE NOTED WHEN HE APPLIED THAT HE ONCE WAS A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY. STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS SAID INQUIRY DEVELOPED THAT HE JOINED THE PARTY FOR A VERY BRIEF PERIOD IN HIS EARLY YOUTH AS A COLLEGE STUDENT AND PAID "28 CENTS IN DUES." THEY SAID HIS ACTION WAS IN THE NATURE OF A "COLLEGE PRANK."

APPLICATION: Temporary admission pursuant to Section 212(d)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, despite inadmissibility under Section 212(a)(26) of that Act.

The applicant, a citizen and resident of England, born at Berthamsted, England on February 10, 1904, is inadmissible to the United States because of his membership in the Communist party of Great Britain for a period of four weeks in 1923. He seeks to transit the United States en route to and from Havana, Cuba, in connection with the filming there of a novel he has written.

The applicant has been granted similar waivers heretofore by this Service, the last occasion by order of October 1, 1958. He has always complied with the terms of his admission. The Department of State reports that no additional derogatory information has been developed since security checks were completed in his case in September 1958. That Department and the American Embassy at London recommend waiver of inadmissibility.

It is suggested that the application be granted, subject to revocation at any time, valid for one entry from Europe about April 9, 1959, and one entry from Cuba about April 16, 1959.

INS SIP

OCT 5 1960

APPLICATION: Temporary admission to the United States pursuant to Section 212(d)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, despite inadmissibility under Section 212(a)(28) of the Act.

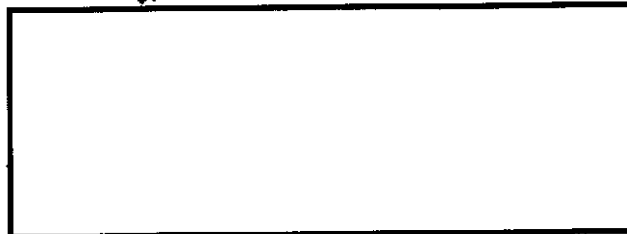

The applicant, a native, citizen and resident of England, born February 10, 1904, a noted British author, has been found by the Department of State to be ineligible to receive a visa because of his membership in the Communist Party for 4 weeks in 1923. He wishes to enter the United States in transit to and from Jamaica.

The alien's temporary admission has been authorized on several previous occasions, last on December 11, 1959, and there is no indication that he violated the conditions of those admissions. Security checks made by the Department of State have disclosed no additional derogatory information. That Department and the Embassy at London recommend that temporary admission again be authorized.

IT IS ORDERED that the application be granted, subject to revocation at any time, valid for two admissions in immediate and continuous transit.

IN RE: GRAHAM GREENE
APPLICATION: Temporary admission to the United States pursuant to Section 212(a)(3)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, despite inadmissibility under Section 212(a)(28) of that Act.

The applicant, a native citizen and resident of England, born on February 2, 1904 in Berkhamstead, England, has been found by the responsible consular officer of the American Embassy, London, England, to be ineligible to receive a visa because of his admitted provisional membership in the Communist Party of Great Britain for four weeks in 1923. The applicant is a writer of international reputation. He is desirous of going to Canada, via New York and on his return journey to spend two or three weeks in New York discussing the production of his play, "The Compliant Lover" which is to be produced on Broadway in the autumn.

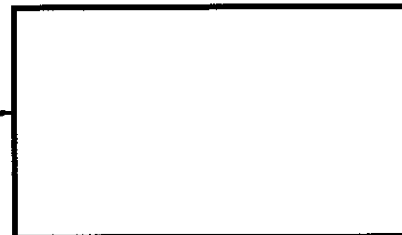

The applicant's affiliation with the Communist Party terminated almost forty years ago and the purpose of his trip may benefit American theater interests. His admission has been authorized by orders of this Service on many previous occasions, the most recent one having been authorized on October 5, 1960. There is no indication that he has violated the terms of his prior admissions. Recent security checks by the Department of State have revealed no additional derogatory information. The American Embassy at London recommends that admission be authorized.

IT IS ORDERED that the application be granted for two admissions, subject to revocation at any time.
